The 1984 GREENLEAF
Green Oaks High School
Home Of The Giants
Shreveport, Louisiana

Student Life

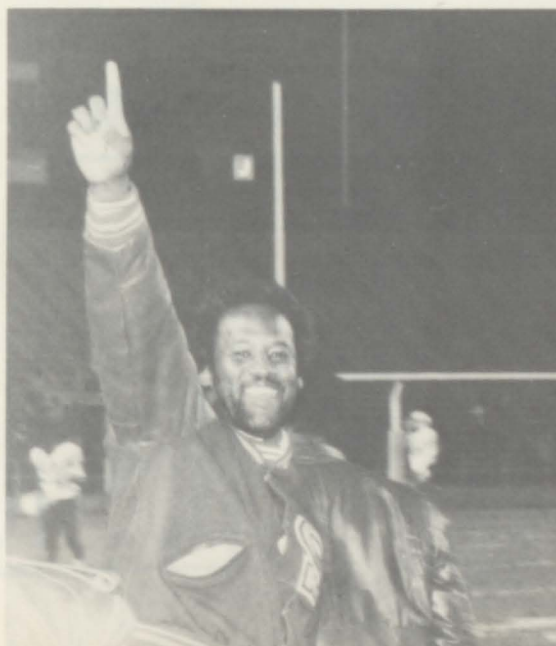

In the land of the GIANTS, friendships are made.

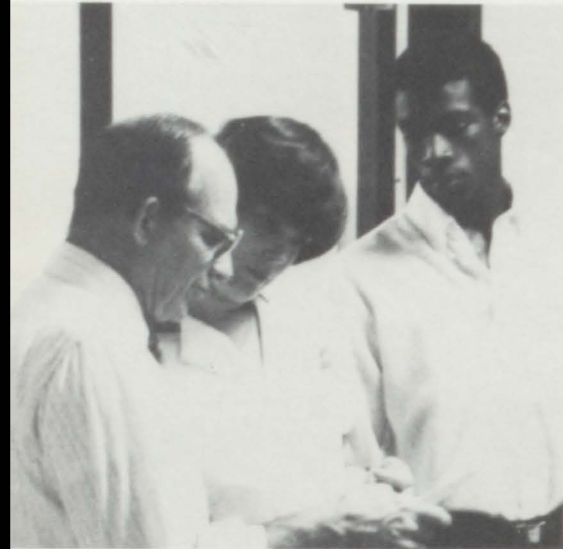

Dreams are shared, Frustrations made known...

Student Life

Karen Kirksey, President of Students Against Drugs, accepts the challenge from R. Thompson, guest speaker. Albert Samuels makes remarks to classmates in accepting challenge to stamp out drug use in high school. Mr. Vardeman explains the procedure to Mrs. May and Terry Savannah. Some seniors stop to pose under the oaks.

The Green Oaks' student is intellectual, sophisticated and playful. This page shows the varied faces of the Green Oaks' student.

Oh! I think I broke it.

No, you may not check out without permission from your parents.

It's always good to get together with friends between classes.

Jill Johnson shows off her very neat and well organized locker to her friends while Michael McCarter tries to convince Darla Jackson that she should let him treat her to lunch.

Ronda Smith Crowned Miss Green Oaks

On a beautiful evening in November 1983, Ronda Smith was crowned Miss Green Oaks 1983-84. This lovely lady reigned over activities during Homecoming. We call her our queen because of the very regal qualities she possesses. Short in stature but tall in love for all adequately describes Ronda. She is the essence of kindness, grace, and beauty.

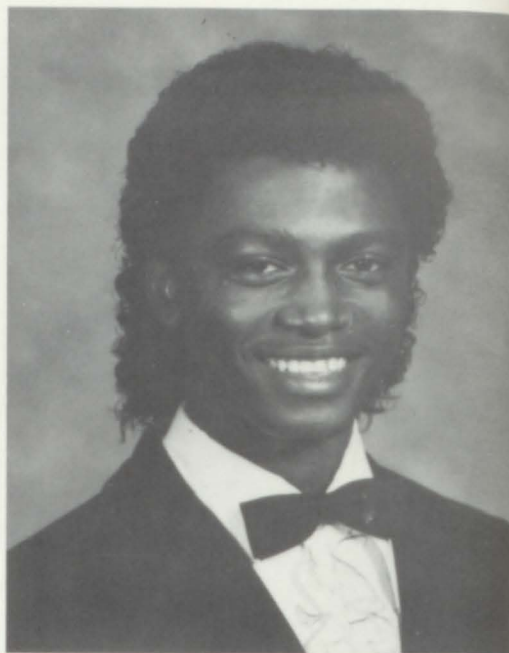

Ronda's smile radiates the beauty she is. Right: Ronda and Michael in the Royal Toast. Tyrone Leake serves the Royal Couple while Calvin Stroughter stands guard.

Ronda, Miss Green Oaks, is a senior. Through her four years as a member of the Giant family, she has been active in many clubs and organizations. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Elites, and the Society of Ebonites. Ronda is also a member of SAD Club. She is pictured receiving a congratulatory kiss from the principal Mr. Tom James as Mrs. B. Bennett assists with the cape. Ronda's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith.

Each year the student body of Green Oaks elects a young man who best exemplifies the ideal male student. The 1983-1984 choice was Michael Washington. Michael has been and is still very active in many organizations on campus. He holds membership in the Society of Ebonites, Egalitarians, and National Honor Society. Michael holds a starting position on the varsity basketball team. Last summer he was a representative to Boy's State and Louisiana College at Pineville for the Civitan's Convention. He received the DAR award for academic excellence, citizenship and school spirit. His charm, his pleasing and polite manner, broad smile and caring spirit make him a favorite with classmates and faculty.

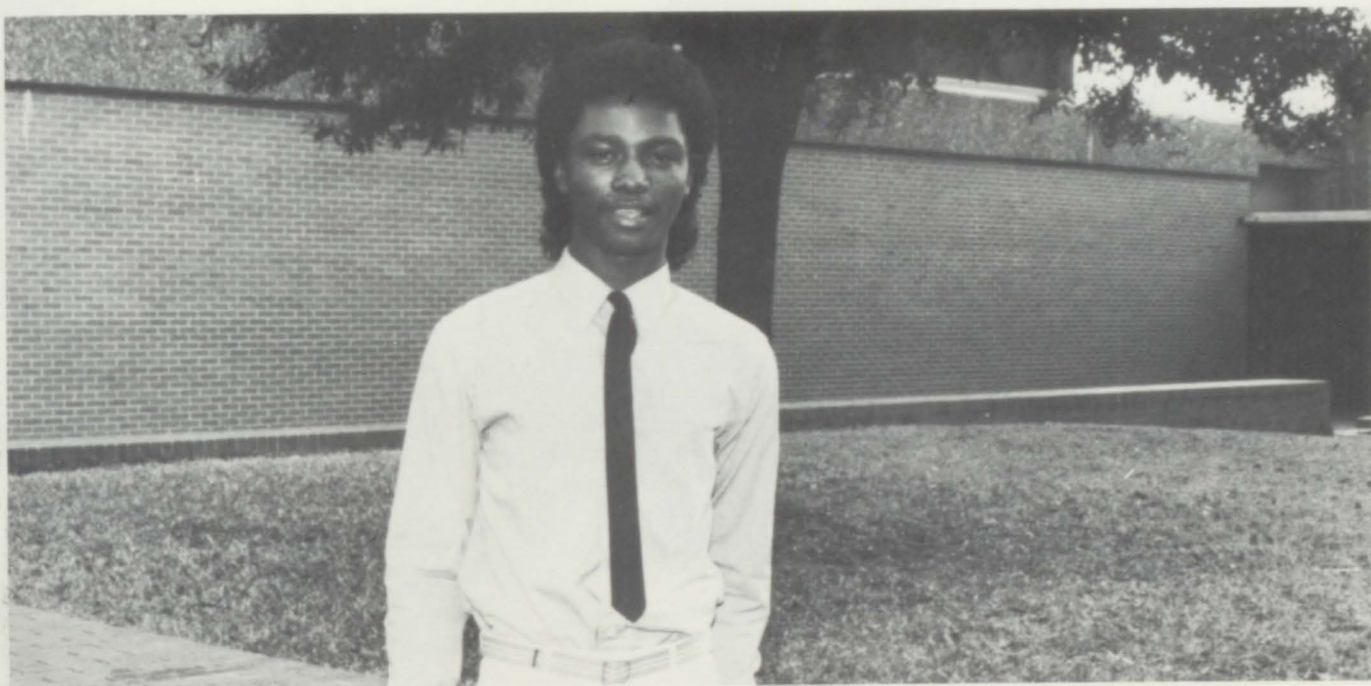

Michael strikes a pose near the flagpole in the square.

Michael Washington, Mr. Green Oaks poses with Ronda Smith, Miss Green Oaks.

Getting The Homecoming Spirit

Mr. and Miss Green Oaks, Michael Washington and Ronda Smith

Band Sweetheart; Lisa Harrison, Football Sweetheart; and Robin Chalmers, ROTC Sweetheart.

Coronation 1983

Queen Ronda makes the Royal Promenade and waves to her loyal subjects. Below, Mr. James, assisted by Mrs. Kendricks presents the sweethearts with mementoes of a royal evening.

The Queen and her Court are serenaded by members of the Male Quartet—Shanandoan Smith, Emanuel Griffin, Patrick Sanders, and Marvin Bryant.

The maids smile approvingly after receiving their gifts.

A Giant Homecoming

Homecoming generates a true GIANT spirit and "The Square" is THE place to be for the noon pep rally. Rod Phillips entertains a group in his HOBO outfit. Daphne Fountain looks on as a spirit banner is raised. Southern University (Baton Rouge) Drill Team came to help in the celebration.

Teachers Become Involved

At Right—Ms. Y. Hayes plans to meet the needs of students in her biology and chemistry classes.

Below—Ms. Ray assists Anthony Wilson while Mrs. Cadman shows Arlene Hardman how to make a file.

Mr. T. Means points out to Gabriel Harvey a particular point in American History. Mrs. S. Hunter keeps the hall free during her duty period.

Administration

Nineteen Eighty Four

Mr. Tom James Principal

The leader and biggest booster of the Green Oaks Giants is Tom James. He is involved in all aspects of the school. In addition to his many administrative duties, he takes time to relate to students, faculty, and parents.

At his desk, Mr. James takes care of a myriad of paperwork. He also steals a few moments in the faculty lounge to catch up on some reading. With Mr. Harvey, he confers about a student.

Many Faces Of

Mr. James pauses a moment to talk with LaDonna Blake. He also shows Student Council President, Albert Samuels that a noon pep rally is not scheduled for Friday. He tells Mr. Harris, the janitor, about a problem with the heating system.

Mr. James and Colonel Sansalone share in admiring the plaque a top honor cadet received just before graduating from Green Oaks.

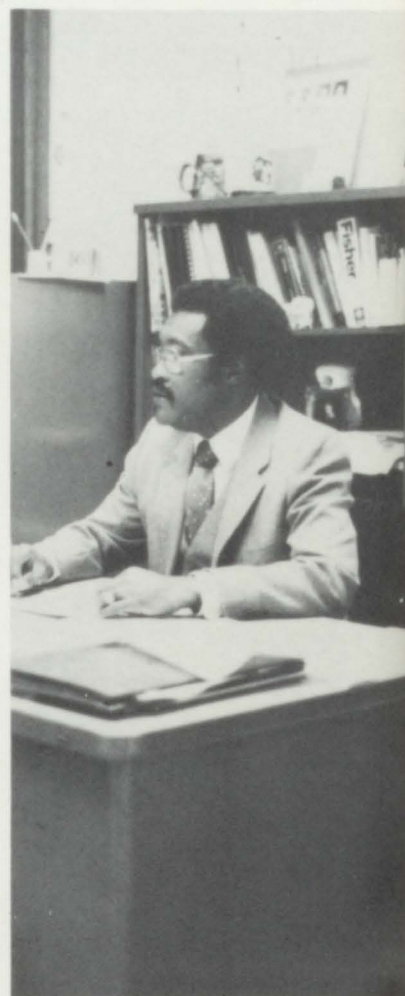

A School Principal

Mr. Huey Hunt, Assistant Principal of Administration explains to Andrea June that she cannot check out without first getting permission from her parents.

Over lunch, Mr. Hunt and Mr. Willie Critton, Attendance Supervisor, discuss a problem concerning a student.

Assistant Principals

Mr. John Baldwin, Assistant Principal of Instruction, spends a great deal of his time meeting with teachers and supervising classroom activities. Among his duties is scheduling classes for students and teachers in a manner to assure conflicts do not occur. (at left) At his desk, he works on the schedule for the coming year.

— In A Variety Of Jobs —

Mrs. Bobbie Kendricks, Mr. Nathaniel Harvey, and Mrs. Pearl White plan activities for National Career Guidance Week.

Mrs. White shows LaShunda Franklin some fact sheets on possible career choices.

Mrs. Kendricks and Mr. Harvey plan program with Mrs. Loe.

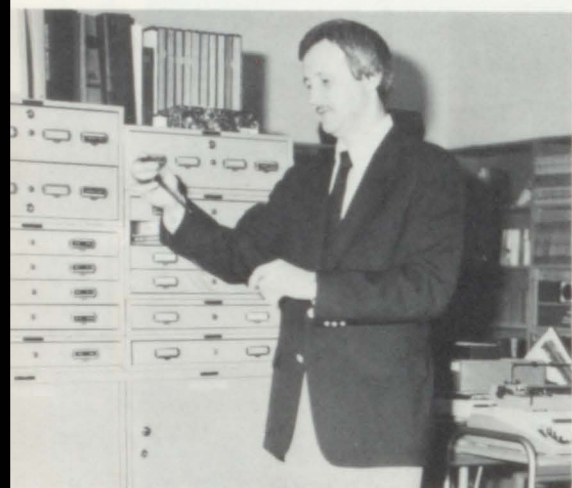

Mrs. Kendricks assists Jerry Marshall as he selects his college choice.

Secretaries At Work

Mrs. K. Loe tries the new word processor; Mrs. M. Jones makes correction in ledger; the receptionist, Mrs. U. Allen, locates a student while Mrs. J. Wilson prepares a schedule. Mrs. C. Hill, the bookkeeper, tries her hand at balancing the books.

The Green Oaks Library provides the students and faculty with a wide variety of resources. The quiet, relaxed atmosphere makes it a great place to study, do research, browse, or come in to read the newspaper. Mr. Larry Bryan, AV Librarian inspects a returned filmstrip before filing it, while Mrs. Ruby Horton, Librarian, shows Mrs. Renee Brown periodicals to use in her English classes.

Mrs. Delois Bennett, Library Secretary

Mrs. Horton and Mr. Bryan discuss a library problem.

Junior Cheerleaders

The members of the junior cheerleading squad learn early many routines and yells. They perform when the ninth grade football and basketball teams play their games. They also entertained the student body at pep rallies. Mrs. Barbara Bennett is the faculty advisor and trains the young ladies. Each year both squads hold a clinic for interested young ladies.

In Formation

Lisa McCarter, and Brenda Fields are the co-captains, and the other members are Joyce Taylor, Sharon Tyler, and Bridgette Newson. The squad poses in one of its favorite stunts.

Learning Is Half The Fun

The junior cheerleaders will tell you that learning the routines is hard work and requires dedication to become perfect, but it pays off.

1983-84 Cheerleaders

Spirit In Giantland

Other members of the varsity squad are Felecia Shepard, Daphne Fountain, Jeanette Lee, Shunda Rogers, and Joycelyn Williams. The sponsor is Barbara Jean Bennett.

All Together Now

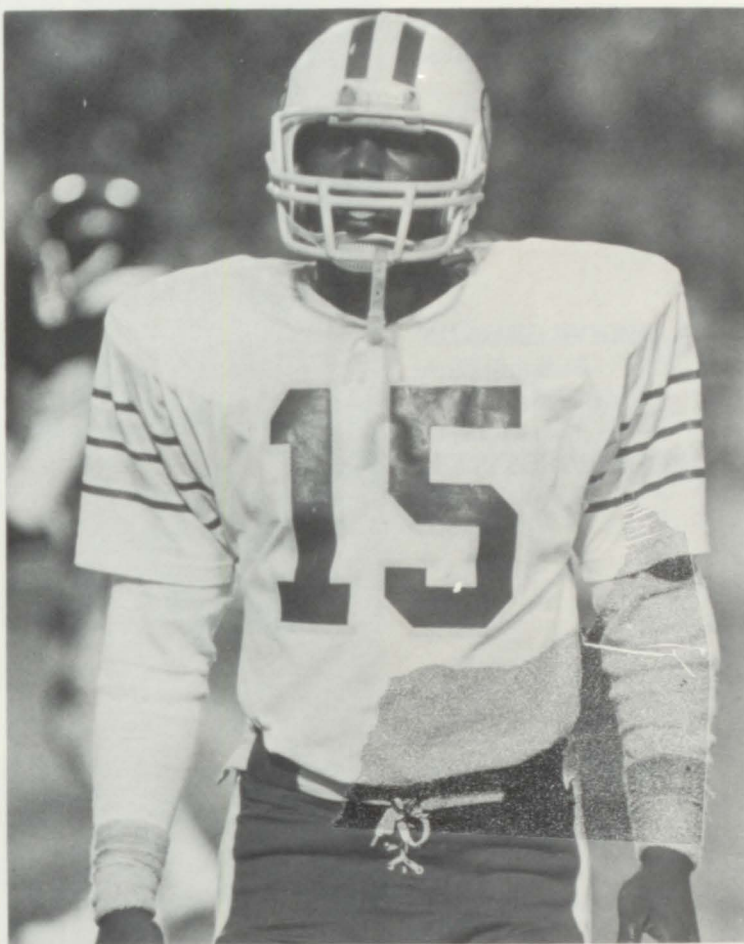

The complete varsity squad joins in another routine. Throughout football and basketball seasons, the cheerleaders keep the teams and the crowd in high spirits with their yells.

National Honor Society
